Student Residency Applicant

For over a thousand years it has been common practice for Zen temples to compose ‘Pure Standards’ (practical guidelines of conduct) of the Zen Community that enable residents to live with each other in mutual respect, peace, and harmony. This is the body and mind of Zen training and practice. For a guest residency, please follow these guidelines completely and wholeheartedly.

1. Participate fully in the Ashland Zen Center schedule and programs. This includes half-day sittings, one-day sittings, sesshins, practice periods and scheduled samu periods. Residents who cannot maintain this commitment completely will determine, with a teacher, an individual schedule during these times.
2. Learn and take responsibility for filling positions such as flower offering, tea serving, etc.
3. Meet with a teacher once a week.
4. Community samu outside the schedule may include seasonal chores such as snow shoveling, gutter cleaning, berry harvesting, hand-watering, etc.
5. Leave all shared community space clean or cleaner than you found them. These include the laundry room, mail room, dining hall, coffee/tea bar, student kitchen(s), main kitchen, zendo, sangha room, closets (cleaning and storage), public bathrooms, kitchen pantry, shop, garage, garden shed, storage, porches and other indoor and outdoor areas used by everyone. Do not leave personal items in community space.
6. Be mindful and responsible for security, safety, and resources (e.g. turn down heat and air conditioner when not home, turn off lights when you leave a room, leave the heat set to 51° when you are away). Attend to trash and recycling, clean up spills, maintain supplies (toilet paper, paper towels, tissue, etc.) and participate proactively in the general upkeep of shared space.
7. Do not smoke or vape inside the buildings or within 10 feet of doors and windows.
8. Discuss medicinal drug use and all challenges you may have with drugs or alcohol with a teacher. This is not to be undertaken alone.
9. Participate in resident meetings and take responsibility for your part in healthy communication between residents.
10. Be fiscally responsible. This includes paying your Guest Residency fees on time.
11. Quiet hours are 10:00 pm to 8:00 am. Laundry may be done 8:00 am to 8:00 pm.

- 12. Live in a harmonious way with other residents and the sangha by honoring commitments and supporting each other’s practice. This includes resolving conflicts in an appropriate and timely manner – first directly with the person involved, next seeking council from a teacher and trying again. The Practice Leader has the final say in unresolved conflict.
- 13. Develop and sustain a positive relationship with the community and neighborhood. This may include good-neighbor action such as public sidewalk maintenance (picking up trash, shoveling snow, raking leaves) and getting to know neighbors by name. Be the reason Ashland Zen Center is a good neighbor.
